

PHOTOS BY KIM PALAFERRI • AUBURN JOURNAL

Valerie Joyner, center, and Lori Shively, both specialists for A.I.M, serve up some desert at the 4th Annual Thanksgiving Feast on Thursday.

Group takes A.I.M. at giving thanks

On Thursday, A.I.M. and Associates and clients which are developmentally disabled adults, honored service and support team members, Auburn police, sheriffs, city staff and client family members with their 4th Annual Thanksgiving Feast at the Rose Room in City Hall.

"We invite the locations to join us for a Thanksgiving meal to show our appreciation to these organizations that allow our clients gain employment skills by allowing them to work there on a voluntary basis," said Bethany Green, Area Supervisor for A.I.M.

A.I.M. clients Paul B. and George W. appreciate local organizations that help them with employment skills.

A.I.M. participant members prepared the meal that included turkey and all the fixings for 120 guests.

At the end of the meal, each person stood up and told the attendees what they were grateful for.

~ Kim Palaferri